AMES Families:
While our calendar is always subject to change, that holds true this year more than ever. You'll see that some dates normally listed haven't been set yet (school pictures or grade level performances for example) while other events have shifted to accommodate the uncertainty as we start the new year (moving Fall Festival to the Spring is another example)

Please note that any in-person event listed is tentative and we will send calendar revisions each time an update is made.
